CROWN & ANCHOR

PUB · RESTAURANT · ROOMS

We are ready for winter at your local...

Autumn has arrived and the evenings are drawing in, it is time for cosy get-togethers around the wood burner in the bar – with delicious lunches and dinners to follow. Our chef Phil has been introducing some Autumnal flavours, with roast partridge, venison pie and wild boar sausages currently on the menu. And have you tried his home-made plum sorbet?

It has been lovely to see the revitalised pub continuing to buzz with drinkers and diners coming from near and far as our reputation for delicious food and a good pint spreads around the district.

We received an outstanding review from Round and About magazine's Liz Nicholls who described the Crown and Anchor as a 'gorgeous gastropub'.

Ben & the team have hosted a flurry of successful events in recent weeks from Wine Suppers with Barnaby Smith of Grape Smith and Stuart Porter from Corney & Barrow showing some brilliant wines paired with Phil's tasting menus.

The Macmillan Coffee Morning on 24th September was well-supported with many villagers enjoying coffee and cake in the cosy bar

A grand total of £272.91 was raised for this very worthy cause. Many thanks to Kelly for organising this, and to all those who baked the delicious cakes and donated so generously.

Halloween was abuzz with little people spooking us all.

Please keep an eye out for future events on our Instagram feed & 'Pub Tonight'.

NEW LUNCHTIME MENU

A special mid week menu is now available at lunchtime at £16 for 2 courses

We have launched a lunchtime Soup & Sandwich option for those of you who are time conscious

The offering will change frequently.

NEW BEDS...

By popular request we can now offer three of our five rooms configured as twin or double beds – still with luxurious Hypnos mattresses.

MORE BEDS...

We have been able to secure two further bedrooms in the village. Perfect for family overflows, longer stays or frequent visitors. Please contact Ben for more details...
